

- PHP web application to read and display student details
- PHP web application to implement a login page and a welcome page.(Login details should be matched with those stored in a database table)
- PHP web application using MySQL database to register, login and display student information. Use PHP Cookies to retrieve information from login. [Note : Use the student registration form designed in Exp 6, initial 6 fields only)
- PHP web application using MySQL database to register, login and display student information. Use PHP Sessions to retrieve information from login.[Note : Use the student registration form designed in Exp 6, initial 6 fields only)